PRESERVATION RESOURCE CENTER'S 2007 HOLIDAY HOME TOUR CELEBRATES 32 YEARS OF HOLIDAY SPLENDOR

WHAT: The Preservation Resource Center's Holiday Home Tour.
Tour seven of the most magnificent private homes in the Garden District at the 32nd annual Holiday Home Tour. The money raised from the tour will fund the PRC's programs: Rebuilding Together, Operation Comeback, Education, Publications and Advocacy.

WHEN: Saturday & Sunday, December 8 & 9, 2007 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: The tour is self-guided through the Garden District. Headquarters for ticket sales, "will call" and the Holiday Home Tour Boutique and Café will be at Trinity Episcopal Church (Bishop Polk Hall) 1329 Jackson Avenue.

WHO: For more than 34 years, the PRC has been a major force in preserving New Orleans' cherished neighborhoods and architecture. Our goal post-Katrina is to assist homeowners in rebuilding while helping displaced citizens return to their homes.

SPECIAL FEATURES: The Holiday Home Tour offers a chance to peek beyond the gates for a glimpse of magnificent art, architectural treasures, historic delights and lavish holiday decorations adorning these marvelous private homes in New Orleans' historic Garden District neighborhood.

- Live musical performances at each home
- More than 30 local vendors selling unique New Orleans' gifts and stocking stuffers at the holiday boutique
- Palate, one of New Orleans top caterers, will again be offering a light lunch of sandwiches, soups and salads. Last year's menu received rave reviews from everyone.

HOW: Ticket prices: Advance ticket sales – groups of 10 or more/$22, members/$25 and non-members/$30. Day of the tour, all tickets are $35.

For more information and advance ticket purchase, please call (504) 581-7032 or visit www.prcno.org

The home of Mrs. Jack R. Aron at 1311 First Street was constructed in 1869 by Samuel Jamison, an Irish architect and builder. Mrs. Aron is graciously opening her magnificent double-galleried Italianate sidehall townhouse to visitors for the Holiday Home Tour.

This year's Patron Party will be at 1315 First Street, one of the city's most photographed and beautifully detailed Italianate center hall masonry villas.
