

Preservation in Print

PUBLISHED BY THE PRESERVATION RESOURCE CENTER OF NEW ORLEANS

MEDIA KIT 2022

The magazine of the Preservation Resource Center since 1975

A Publication with a Purpose

Preservation in Print is the nation's most frequently published architectural conservation and neighborhood revitalization magazine, this year celebrating its 41st anniversary as a powerful voice for historic preservation. We are the award-winning magazine of the Preservation Resource Center, since 1974 Louisiana's premier nonprofit dedicated to the preservation and revitalization of historic architecture and neighborhoods.

Where the candidates stand on historic preservation, blight remediation and affordable housing

Know your district

Here's a breakdown of the designated historic districts in each council district. Note: this list does not include individually designated sites or landmarks.

District A	Local Historic Districts: Carrollton, Carrollton Avenue, Esplanade Ridge, Mid-City, Parkview, St. Charles Avenue, Uptown National Register Districts: Carrollton, Broadmoor, Esplanade Ridge, Metairie Cemetery, Mid-City, Parkview, South Lakeside, Uptown
District B	Local Historic Districts: Canal Street, Garden District, Irish Channel, Lower Garden District, Lafayette Square, Mid-City, Poydras Place, St. Charles Avenue, Uptown, Warehouse District National Register Districts: Broadmoor, Central City, Garden District, Irish Channel, Lower Garden District, Mid-City, Uptown
District C	Local Historic Districts: Algiers Point, Bywater, Canal Street, Esplanade Ridge, French Quarter, Garden District, Lower Garden District, Mid-City, Parkview, St. Charles Avenue, Uptown National Register Districts: Algiers Point, Bywater, Esplanade Ridge, French Quarter, Garden District, Lower Garden District, Mid-City, Parkview, St. Charles Avenue, Uptown
District D	Local Historic Districts: Bywater, Esplanade Ridge, French Quarter, Garden District, Lower Garden District, Mid-City, Parkview, St. Charles Avenue, Uptown National Register Districts: Bywater, Esplanade Ridge, French Quarter, Garden District, Lower Garden District, Mid-City, Parkview, St. Charles Avenue, Uptown
District E	Local Historic Districts: Holy Cross National Register Districts: Holy Cross

Exciting FEATURES

In-depth stories and interviews that matter

- HOW do experts restore historic buildings
- WHY is preservation a key driver of economic development
- WHICH are the planning issues that affect your quality of life
- WHERE do locals choose to live, shop and play
- WHAT is it that makes a community great
- WHO has the best ideas for 21st century urban living
- WHEN can you use tax incentives to renovate

Informative SERIES

Regular and rotating explorations on fascinating and useful topics and trends.

- Features on the city's best renovations, restorations and revitalizations.
- Historical narratives by geographer and Tulane professor Richard Campanella.
- Profiles of local leaders preserving the diverse and important history of New Orleans and bringing their communities' heritage to life.
- Monthly listings of the most interesting upcoming events in the preservation community and beyond.

...and more.

Local to International NEWS

Updates on the vital work of the PRC, news on advocacy issues across the city, state, nation and world, and updates from the co-publisher, the Louisiana State Historic Preservation Office, on its historic preservation and archaeological work.

Preservation in Print

2022 EDITORIAL CALENDAR

In every issue

- Director's Spotlight: Key people and projects in historic preservation
- Richard Campanella's Streetscapes: A geographer with the Tulane School of Architecture, Campanella explores the history and geography that shaped New Orleans.
- What's Happening: A snapshot of local real estate developments
- Louisiana State Historic Preservation Office column: A look at historic preservation issues around Louisiana
- "I'm a Preservationist": Q&A interview with prominent New Orleanians about issues facing the city

February

- Economic development and historic preservation
- Spotlight: New historic marker honors Native Americans and others who died at Jackson Barracks
- Preservation News: Updates about high-profile preservation issues

March

- Spotlight: The Lower Garden District becomes a hot spot for real estate development
- Preservation news: Updates on high-profile preservation issues
- New Orleans Architecture Quiz: Test your knowledge of the city's historic architecture

April

- The Climate Change Issue
- Historic preservation and the environment: How building renovations provide opportunities to fight climate change
- Solar panels: What to know before installing solar panels on a historic building
- Preservation News: Saving a 1950s-era Holiday Inn in New Orleans East

May

- The Home Improvement Issue
- Home renovation features: Practical advice for homeowners looking to care for historic houses, with particular focus on issues related to New Orleans: humidity, termites, etc.
- Spotlight: A look at real estate developments in the Freret neighborhood
- Postcards in Preservation: The Alabama Civil Rights Trail

June

- Preservation Month
- Shotgun House Tour: Articles exploring the history, design, landscaping, renovations and décor of each house featured on the tour
- Preservation News: Updates about high-profile preservation issues
- Spotlight: A look at real estate developments in the Uptown, Audubon Park and Carrollton neighborhoods

September

- Hurricane Season prep: How to make sure your home is ready for a storm
- Historic landscapes: Plants and designs that stand the test of time.
- Spotlight: A look at real estate developments in Mid City, City Park and Bayou St. John neighborhoods

October

- Historic building renovation feature
- New Orleans Architecture Quiz: Test your knowledge of the city's historic architecture
- Spotlight: A look at real estate development and renovation projects in Lakefront, Gentilly neighborhoods

November

- Historic building or home renovation feature
- Preservation News: Updates about high-profile preservation issues
- Spotlight: A look at real estate developments in Central Business District, Warehouse District and downtown neighborhoods

December

- 47th annual Holiday Home Tour: Articles exploring the history, design, landscaping, renovations and décor of each house featured on the tour
- The Year in Historic Preservation: Wins and losses from 2021
- Preservation News: Updates about preservation issues
- New Orleans Architecture Quiz: Test your knowledge of the city's historic architecture

View the full archive at
PRCNO.org

“Each month I sit down and read my Preservation in Print cover to cover.”

OUR READERS ARE
informed, engaged citizens
WHO ARE INTERESTED IN:

- Beautifying their homes and gardens
- Enjoying the city and region's fantastic amenities and cultural events
- Learning about architecture, culture and history
- Discovering new neighborhoods and weekend getaways
- Traveling, exploring, shopping, dining, experiencing unique cultural offerings
- Reading about trends and technology from a local to international scale

30,000 readers every month, nine months per year

Our readers are business and civic leaders, doctors, lawyers, architects, artists, homemakers, professors, bankers, stockbrokers, developers, neighborhood decision makers and young professionals. Many seek to buy or renovate homes. They want to know about the city's fine dining, cultural events and shopping, education opportunities for their children, homes for sale in New Orleans, Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama, and decorating trends for their homes.

64% live in New Orleans

13% reside in Greater New Orleans (Jefferson, St. Tammany, River Region)

18% live elsewhere in Louisiana

5% live out of state (in 40 of the 50 states)

We MAIL an average of 10,000 issues each month to the entire Preservation Resource Center member base as well as civic and neighborhood organizations, officials and businesspeople across New Orleans, Louisiana, and the country.

We also target distribution of complimentary copies in fine establishments in featured locations. Advertisers can receive issues to distribute by request.

Your investment in Preservation in Print pays dividends forever: Ads are permanently available to readers on our online archive at PRCNO.org.

Preservation in Print's impressive archive features every single issue of the magazine since its inception in 1975 viewable as PDF, downloadable, printable, and searchable by keyword. Our current issue and archive, all available on PRCNO.org, are visited by thousands of people a year.

Your ad in Preservation in Print supports the revitalization of towns across Louisiana.

The Work of the PRC

- Our expert staff and knowledgeable volunteers offer consultation and assistance on home purchase and renovation and available financing and tax incentives. Two programs, Operation Comeback, a resource center for home buyers, and Rebuilding Together, which helps repair the homes of low-income and elderly and/or disabled homeowners, have rehabbed more than 1,500 homes.
- WE ADVOCATE for the community and neighborhoods at the local, state and federal levels.
- WE EDUCATE citizens and students through a robust Education and Outreach department.
- WE SAFEGUARD 123 historic structures in the state with our Preservation Easements program.
- WE GUIDE and encourage the acquisition and renovation of vacant buildings by individuals through Operation Comeback and through our practice of accepting and reselling donated structures.
- WE PROMOTE awareness through our award-winning publication Preservation in Print and much more...

---

*Your advertising dollars keep Preservation in Print in the hands of 30,000 readers and on the computer screens of thousands more.*

The magazine is also supported by PRC membership dues, donations, gifts and fundraisers. The Louisiana Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism partners with PRC to produce Preservation in Print through its Division of Historic Preservation.

Rates & Graphic Specifications

Submitting Your Ad

Ads may be submitted only in TIFF, JPEG, EPS or PDF format and are accepted through email or online FTP sites.

Ads and all images (photos, logos, etc.) used to create ads must be at least 300 dpi for quality printing. Do not use photos and logos copied off a website as they are not adequate for quality print production.

PDF files should be exported with fonts embedded and in press quality (both are export settings). Black and white ads should be created as grayscale and color ads as CMYK.

Upon request, production of your ad, including typesetting, design, photo composition, etc., can be done by the publisher for a fee. The magazine is not responsible for copy writing or procuring content. Contact the ad manager for more information and instructions.

Information and photos, logos, etc. need to be submitted with the same photo and graphic requirements listed above. If you are submitting property pictures for your ad, the pictures must be labeled with the address of the property.

SPACE RESERVATIONS DUE THE 1ST OF THE MONTH PRECEDING PUBLICATION; ADS ARE DUE BY THE 3RD.

SIZE	WIDTH x HEIGHT	1 Insertion	5 Insertions	9 Insertions
Full page	8-1/4" x 11-1/8" 9-1/4 x 12-1/4" (with bleed)	$2,120	$1,880	$1,800
1/2 page	8-1/4" x 5-3/8" (horizontal) 4' x 11-1/8" (vertical)	$1,060	$940	$900
1/4 page	4' x 5-3/8"	$530	$470	$450
1/8 page	4' x 2-5/8" (horizontal) 1-7/8" x 5-3/8" (vertical)	$290	$260	$250

Please ensure that your designed ad is the correct size. If it is not, it will have to be resized to fit in the space reserved.

Prices are for black and white ads. Four-color ads are an additional $200 for full page, $100 for 1/2 page, and $50 for 1/4 and 1/8 page ads. Rates for guaranteed placement available on request. 5% discount for full payment in advance of publication. All accounts must be paid in full to date.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Dinah Campbell, Advertising Manager

PHONE 504.452.0240 EMAIL dcampbell@prcno.org