

Preservation Resource Center Coloring Sheets

Center Hall House

One-and-a-half story house raised two to eight feet above ground on brick piers.

Side-gabled roof,
often broken by central dormer.

Full-width
front gallery
framed by six columns
supporting an entablature.

Exterior
usually of wood.

Five openings with front door in the center.